Order of Hockey in Canada

The Order of Hockey in Canada is an award that was created in 2012 to recognize individuals who have made extraordinary contributions to the game of hockey in Canada.

Over 25 distinguished honourees represent the best in Canadian Hockey – from athletes like Gordie Howe, Wayne Gretzky and Cassie Campbell-Pascall...to innovators and leaders like Bob Nicholson, Dave King and Fran Rider.

Candidates for election as distinguished honourees of the Order of Hockey in Canada are chosen on the basis of their outstanding contributions or service to the growth and development of the sport of hockey in Canada, which may include players, coaches, officials, administrators, executives, trainers, physicians, inventors or any other person whose role or service in the game is recognized as extraordinary.

Each year a new class of inductees is announced, and honoured with their award at the Hockey Canada Foundation Gala.

Sponsorship Opportunities

This exceptional, formal gala evening will be a wonderful opportunity to meet and mingle with past and present hockey stars, while supporting the local community and meeting business entertainment needs. Proceeds from the 2019 Hockey Canada Foundation, Gala & Golf will support priority initiatives for Hockey Canada, the Hockey Canada Foundation and a local legacy that will remain in Edmonton and the province.
