

MONTREAL

MEDIA INFORMATION FOR THE 2015 IIHF WORLD JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

General Information

- Requests for media accreditation should have been completed by Nov. 1, 2014.
- Hockey Canada will make best efforts to accommodate late requests, but can no longer guarantee accreditation availability at this stage.
- Only officially-accredited media will be given access to the Bell Centre and practices at the Bell Sports Complex in Brossard.
- No freelance journalists will be given access to Bell Centre and/or Bell Sports Complex in Brossard without an accreditation from a specific media outlet.
- Press box seating assignments will be handled on a game-by-game basis and may not be guaranteed for all games for all accredited media; seating assignments may change during the course of the event.
- Please contact the Hockey Canada media contact (see below) with any questions or requests related to overall media accreditation, media access and press box seating assignments.

Pre-Tournament Games

- Accreditation for the 2015 IIHF World Junior Championship does not include pre-tournament games in any other venue except for the December 23rd Canada vs. Switzerland game at the Bell Centre.

Television & Radio

- There will be restrictions on television camera access prior to, during and after games, unless permission has been specifically granted by TSN/RDS.
- Please contact the Hockey Canada media contact with any questions or requests related to television and/or radio.

Photographers

- There will be no access to strobe lights for any media outlets, and there will not be any opportunity to install strobe lights in either of the 2015 IIHF World Junior Championship venues.
- Photographers will be required to sign a waiver form indicating that images will only be used for editorial purposes and will, under no circumstances, be used for commercial purposes.
- Please contact Jean-Philippe Gagnon, photography coordinator, at 514-292-5810 or jp.gagnon@innovitech.com with any questions related to photography.
