They're back! The defending RBC Cup champions will look to become the first team since the Vernon Lakers in 1990 and 1991 to repeat as the top Junior A team in Canada. Humboldt ran roughshod over the Saskatchewan Junior Hockey League during the regular season, finishing 15 points ahead of the next best team. Leading the way was blueliner and Broncos captain Brady Wacker – the Top Defenceman at the 2008 RBC Cup in Cornwall, Ont. Wacker led the Broncos and all SJHL defencemen in scoring and picked up the league's Defenceman of the Year and Player of the Year awards. After awaiting the results of first-round series in the SJHL, Humboldt needed six games to eliminate the pesky Battlefords North Stars before rolling over Flin Flon in four straight to reach the SJHL final for the third year in a row. Facing the Melville Millionaires in the league championship series for the second time in three years, the Broncos dropped Game 1 on home ice before rattling off three tight wins, including one in overtime, and clinching the Saskatchewan championship for the third-consecutive year with a Game 5 win. Just as they did in 2008, the Portage Terriers provided the opposition for Humboldt in the ANAVET Cup, but the Manitoba champions made sure it would not be another sweep, as it was one year ago. The teams split the first two games in Portage before the series shifted to Humboldt for Games 3, 4 and 5. Back-to-back wins by the visitors put the Broncos on the ropes, but they responded with a dominating 12-2 win in Game 5, ensuring the series would end in Portage. A Game 6 overtime win set the stage for a memorable Game 7, in which the Broncos trailed 4-1 in the third period before forcing overtime and taking the West Region championship on Nick Kalnicki's extra time winner, booking their ticket to Victoria for the chance to repeat as national Junior A champions.

After surviving the toughest playoff road in Canadian Junior A hockey, the Kingston Voyageurs will play for the National Junior A Championship for the first time. From the time the first puck dropped on the OJHL playoffs on February 12 to the final buzzer in the championship game at the Dudley Hewitt Cup on April 25, the Voyageurs played 29 playoff games in 73 days against eight different opponents. The Voyageurs claimed the Ruddock Division championship during the regular season, eking out the title by just a single point over the Peterborough Stars. Kingston didn't have a lights-out scorer leading the way – Brock Higgs and Ben Power tied for the team lead with 58 points, good for only 63rd in the 37-team league. The goaltending, however, was a different story, as Shawn Sirman – picked up from Trenton in a preseason trade – finished third in the OJHL with a 2.36 goals against average, and his .926 save percentage put him second in that category. Top-ranked heading into the OJHL playoffs, the Voyageurs posted convincing series wins over Pickering and Ajax, scoring 29 goals in their four-game sweep of the Attack, and ran off three-straight wins over Peterborough to rebound from an early 2-1 deficit and claim the division playoff championship, advancing to the final four. Kingston dropped Game 1 to Huntsville in the league semifinal before scoring four wins in a row to set up an OJHL championship date with the defending champions, the Oakville Blades, and took Games 1 and 2 to pull away from the Blades, wrapping up the league championship on home ice in Game 6. Defence reigned at the Dudley Hewitt Cup as the Voyageurs allowed just one goal in three round-robin games – a 1-0 loss to the SJHL's Fort William North Stars – to claim top spot in the preliminary round, and then knocked off the North Stars 4-1 in a rematch in the championship game to advance to Victoria and their first shot at the RBC Cup.

For the third time, the Summerside Western Capitals will play for Canada's National Junior A Championship – but the first time, they won't play as the host team. The 1997 national champions earned their way in, posting the best record in the Maritime Junior A Hockey League and running roughshod over everyone and everything in their way en route to the league championship. The Capitals spread out their scoring, with five players ranked in the top 10 in MJHL scoring, including Brad Smith (2nd, 84 points), Chad Locke (6th, 76), Brett Gallant (7th, 73), Mike MacIsaac (9th, 67) and Spencer Corcoran (10th, 67). After squeezing out an overtime win in its playoff opener against Dieppe, Summerside rolled to three consecutive wins by at least three goals to sweep the Commandos, and posted three more lopsided wins to open its second-round series against Miramichi before finishing off another sweep in Game 4. The Capitals stretched their playoff winning streak to nine by winning Game 1 of the MJHL final against Truro before the Bearcats evened the series with a victory of their own in Game 2. But that would be the only mark in the loss column for Summerside, as it swept through the final three games to wrap up the series in five and claim its first MJHL championship since 1997 – which was also their last appearance at the RBC Cup. The Capitals jumped out to a quick start at the Fred Page Cup, knocking off Pembroke and Sherbrooke before a loss to host Dieppe sent them to the semifinal, forcing them to take the longer road to Victoria. Another victory over Pembroke set up an all-MJHL rematch with Dieppe with a ticket to the 2009 RBC Cup on the line. Locke forced overtime on a goal with eight minutes go, and MacIsaac was the hero, scoring in double overtime to send the Capitals west for the chance to win a second national championship.

Ten years after they last stood atop the Canadian Junior A mountain, the Vernon Vipers are back for another crack at the national championship. A win in Victoria will make the Vipers the winningest team in National Junior A Championship history. They currently have four national titles (1990, 1991, 1996, 1999), tied with the Prince Albert Raiders for the most in history. The Vipers held off the Salmon Arm Silverbacks to claim the Interior Conference's regular season crown, and did it with a scoring-by-committee approach. Connor Jones was the team's leading scorer, just squeaking into the top 20 in BCHL scoring with 60 points. Connor's twin brother Kellan finished third with 52 points, giving the Vipers a deadly one-two look-alike punch. Andrew Hammond was among the league's best netminders – his 2.30 goals against average was number one, while his .912 save percentage was third-best as Vernon allowed a league-low 145 goals in 60 games. After watching the first round of the playoffs from the sidelines, thanks to a bye, the Vipers quickly dispatched the defending BCHL champions from Penticton in five games, setting up a conference final showdown with the Silverbacks. As they did against the Vees, Vernon dropped Game 1 in overtime before rattling off back-to-back wins to take control of the series, and finished off the Silverbacks in six games to move into the BCHL final. The championship was a classic battle of offence vs. defence – the Powell River Kings scored 251 goals during the regular season, more than any BCHL team. But the Vipers smothered the Powell River offence in Games 1 and 2, posting consecutive shutout victories, and, after Vernon survived a triple-overtime marathon in Game 4, the Vipers captured their seventh league title in six games. Riding the momentum of the BCHL championship, Vernon made short work of the AJHL-champion Grande Prairie Storm in the Doyle Cup, sweeping the series in four games and booking its spot at the 2009 RBC Cup.

On paper, the Victoria Grizzlies appear to have a terrific chance to become the first host team since the Weyburn Red Wings in 2005 to win the National Junior A Championship. They set franchise records for wins and points in a season, had the best record in the BCHL, scored the second-most goals and allowed the second-fewest, and did something no host team since Grande Prairie in 2004 was able to accomplish – win a playoff series the same year they hosted the RBC Cup. Trever Hertz led the Grizzlies' balanced offensive attack, finishing fifth in the BCHL scoring race with 72 points. Overall, six players scored at least 50 points, with five notching at least 20 goals. On the back end, netminder Anthony Grieco ranked among the BCHL's best, fashioning a 3.52 goals against average, good for third, and .905 save percentage, one of just five goaltenders with at least 30 appearances to crack the .900 mark. The league's best regular season record earned the Grizzlies a first-round bye and a second-round match-up with their cross-island rivals from Cowichan Valley. The series looked to be well in hand when the Grizzlies took a 3-1 lead heading back to Bear Mountain Arena for Game 5, but the Capitals surprised the Grizzlies by forcing a Game 7 with a pair of wins. Determined not to have their season end like those of the previous four RBC Cup hosts – after only one playoff series – the Grizzlies routed the Caps 6-0 in Game 7, moving into the Coastal Conference final. After dropping a pair of games in overtime on home ice and splitting two games in Powell River, the Grizzlies were the ones in trouble, facing a 3-1 deficit of their own. But Victoria rebounded with three-goal wins in Game 5 and 6, meaning they were returning to their home ice for a deciding Game 7. Unfortunately, though, the playoff run ended there, as the Kings scored a 4-1 victory to end one set of championship dreams for the Grizzlies.
